PRELUDE

Michael, coeli signifer (Motet for Michaelmas)

Jakob Handl (1556-1591)

Sung by The St. Michael Section Leaders

Michael, coeli signifer, Gabriel, mundi lucifer, Raphael, tres archangeli Christi et omnes angeli, amantes casta corpora, nostra per cunetta specula tuentur ab insidiis hostium et perfidies. Hi nos semper custodiant et post mortem suscitant, angelorum altissimo laudem canamus Domino.

*Michael, standard-bearer of heaven; Gabriel, light-bringer of the world, and Raphael — the three archangels of Christ and all the angels, the beloved ones:
through all the ages they protect us from the snares and treachery of our enemies.
May they always guard us, and after death may they receive us.
Let us sing the praise of the angels to the Lord Most High.*

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lessons

FIRST READING: Sirach 35:12-17

Reader A Reading from Ecclesiasticus, or the Wisdom of Jesus Son of Sirach.

¹²Give to the Most High as he has given to you,
 and as generously as you can afford.

¹³For the Lord is the one who repays,
 and he will repay you sevenfold.

¹⁴Do not offer him a bribe, for he will not accept it;

¹⁵and do not rely on a dishonest sacrifice;
 for the Lord is the judge,
 and with him there is no partiality.

¹⁶He will not show partiality to the poor;
 but he will listen to the prayer of one who is wronged.

¹⁷He will not ignore the supplication of the orphan,
 or the widow when she pours out her complaint.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

PSALM: Psalm 84:1-6

¹How dear to me is your dwelling, O LORD of hosts! *
My soul has a desire and longing for the courts of the LORD;
my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.
²The sparrow has found her a house
and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young; *
by the side of your altars, O LORD of hosts,
my King and my God.
³Happy are they who dwell in your house! *
they will always be praising you.
⁴Happy are the people whose strength is in you! ***
whose hearts are set on the pilgrims' way.
⁵Those who go through the desolate valley will find it a place of springs, * for the early rains have covered it with pools of water.
⁶They will climb from height to height, ***
and the God of gods will reveal himself in Zion.

SECOND READING: 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18

Reader A Reading from Paul's Second letter to Timothy.

⁶As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. ⁷I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. ⁸From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

¹⁶At my first defense no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! ¹⁷But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. ¹⁸The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL: Luke 18:9-14

Celebrant + The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

¶ Jesus told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt:¹⁰ "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. ¹¹ The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, 'God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. ¹² I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.' ¹³ But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!' ¹⁴ I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted."

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Please join in singing the Alleluia as the procession returns.

SERMON

The Rev. Dr. Barbara Stewart

A period of meditative silence follows the Sermon.

THE CREED

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

For you are the source of light and life; you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS

Land of Rest
19th c. American tune

Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly Lord, God of po-wer and might, — Heav'n and earth are full of your glo-ry, Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Bless - ed is the One who comes in the Name of the Lord, — Ho - san - na in the high - est, — Ho - san - na in the high - est!

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with Michael and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Wherever you are on your spiritual journey you are welcome to come forward to receive the consecrated wine and wafers. Wine will be served by our chalice bearers from the common cup. In keeping with the pandemic safety guidelines from our bishop, the communicant may drink from the chalice or, in the alternative, the priest will dip the wafer into the wine and place it directly on the communicant's tongue. If you prefer not to have wine, simply cross your arms over your chest after receiving the wafer.

Congregants worshiping on Zoom or Facebook Live may say the following:

A PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. I love you above all things, and long for you in my soul. Since I cannot receive you in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Music Notes by Ray Urwin

Today's anthem and Offertory hymn were both composed by Orlando Gibbons (1583-1625), one of the greatest English musicians of his time, along with Thomas Tallis and William Byrd. As a boy Gibbons sang in the choir of King's College, Cambridge, and later served as organist of both the Chapel Royal and Westminster Abbey. He wrote many anthems, services, vocal, instrumental, sacred and secular music, and has ten hymns in our hymnal. In 1625 he traveled with the Chapel Royal to Canterbury for the reception of King Charles I's new bride, but while there he suddenly died, and was buried in Canterbury Cathedral. This anthem has been a standard of the Anglican choral repertoire almost since it was written: manuscripts of it are found in many cathedral and college chapel libraries of its time, and it was especially popular in the second half of the 17th century. The beautiful words of our offertory hymn were written by Matthew Bridges, a 19th century poet who converted to Catholicism due to the Oxford Movement.

Today we sing a different Alleluia, to a beautiful Irish tune known as Salley Gardens, along with organ music based on it to further familiarize us with it.
