The Lessons

FIRST READING: Proverbs 8:1-4, 22-31

Reader        A Reading from the book of Proverbs.

<sup>1</sup>Does not wisdom call,
and does not understanding raise her voice?

<sup>2</sup>On the heights, beside the way,
at the crossroads she takes her stand;

<sup>3</sup>beside the gates in front of the town,
at the entrance of the portals she cries out:

<sup>4</sup>"To you, O people, I call,
and my cry is to all that live.

<sup>22</sup>The LORD created me at the beginning of his work,
the first of his acts of long ago.

<sup>23</sup>Ages ago I was set up,
at the first, before the beginning of the earth.

<sup>24</sup>When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water.

<sup>25</sup>Before the mountains had been shaped,
before the hills, I was brought forth—

<sup>26</sup>when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world's first bits of soil.

<sup>27</sup>When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep,

<sup>28</sup>when he made firm the skies above,
when he established the fountains of the deep,

<sup>29</sup>when he assigned to the sea its limit,
so that the waters might not transgress his command,
when he marked out the foundations of the earth,

<sup>30</sup>then I was beside him, like a master worker;
and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always,

<sup>31</sup>rejoicing in his inhabited world
and delighting in the human race.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People Thanks be to God.

PSALM: Psalm 8

Domine, Dominus noster

Jerome Webster Meachen
(b. 1930)

© 1956, Jerome Webster Meachen.

O Lord our Governor, how exalted is your Name in all the world! Out of the mouths of infants and children your majesty is praised above the heavens. You have set up a stronghold against your adversaries, to quell the enemy and the a-venger.

When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars you have set in their courses, What is man that you should be mindful of him? the son of man that you should seek him out?

You have made him but little lower than the angels; you adorn him with glory and honor;
You give him mastery over the works of your hands; you put all things under his feet:

All sheep and oxen, even the wild beasts of the field,
The birds of the air, the fish of the sea, and whatsoever walks in the paths of the sea.

(2nd half:)

O Lord our Governor, how exalted is your Name in all the world!

SECOND READING: Romans 5:1-5

Reader A Reading from Paul's letter to the Church in Rome.

<sup>1</sup>Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>2</sup>through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. <sup>3</sup>And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, <sup>4</sup>and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, <sup>5</sup>and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL: John 16:12-15

Celebrant     + The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People         Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to his disciples, <sup>12</sup>"I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. <sup>13</sup>When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. <sup>14</sup>He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. <sup>15</sup>All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you."

Celebrant     The Gospel of the Lord.

People         Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Please join in singing verse 4 of the hymn as the procession returns.

SERMON

The Rev. Dr. Barbara Stewart

A period of meditative silence follows the Sermon.

THE CREED

We believe in one God,

the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the ✝ resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

- Celebrant*     The Lord be with you.
People         And also with you.
Celebrant     Lift up your hearts.
People         We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant     Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People         It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

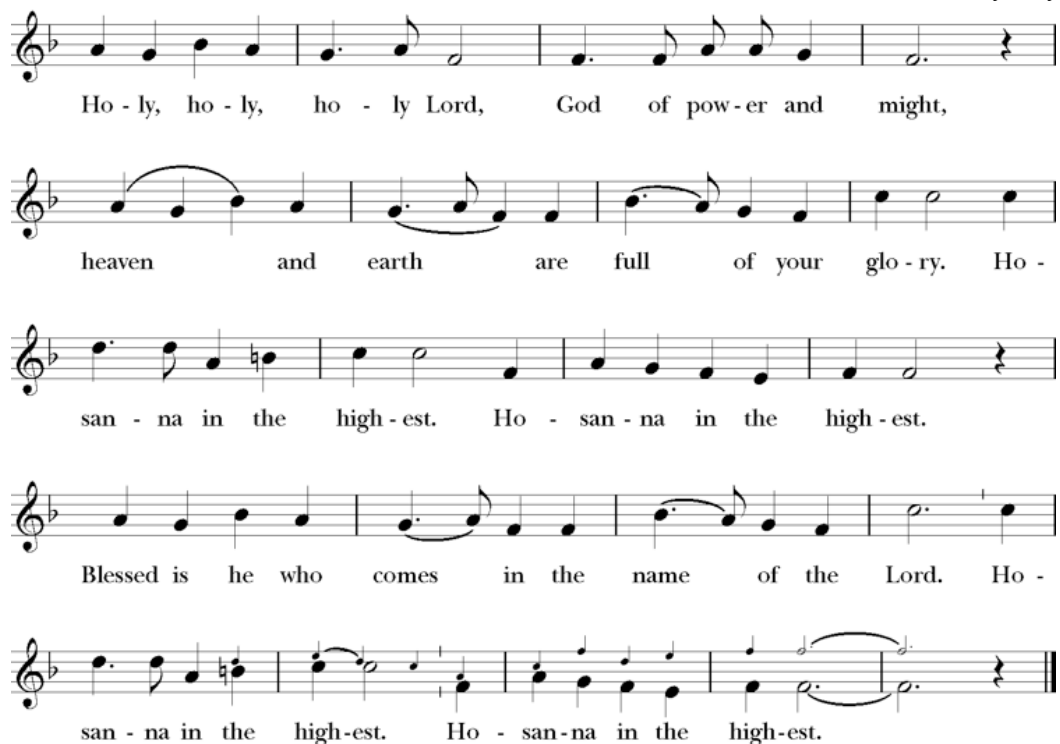

For with your co-eternal Son and Holy Spirit, you are one God, one Lord, in Trinity of Persons and in Unity of Being: and we celebrate the one and equal glory of you, O Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS

Hymnal S-125

Richard Proulx
Descant by Ray Urwin

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
 Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

A PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. I love you above all things, and long for you in my soul. Since I cannot receive you in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

esto nobis praegustatum in mortis examine.*

14th century, attributed to Pope Innocent VI

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

Music Notes by Ray Urwin

Today's Prelude is one of Bach's finest organ pieces. It's based on a Lutheran version of the Nicene Creed with its Trinitarian structure. And our entrance hymn, Holy, holy, holy (Nicaea), often regarded as the archetypal Victorian hymn tune, is the hymn for Trinity Sunday. The composer, John B. Dykes, was prolific, with twelve tunes in our current book and twice as many in the 1940 hymnal. Nicaea and Eternal Father, strong to save (the Navy Hymn, No. 579) are his best-known tunes, but he wrote many others, including Ride on, ride on in majesty, Take my life, and let it be (707), Shepherd of souls, refresh and bless (343), Sing, my soul, his wondrous love (467), and O for a closer walk with God (683). There are several other hymn tunes which also begin the same way as Nicaea, with a triad (the 1st, 3rd, and 5th notes of a scale) - a musical symbol of the Trinity, according to early music theorists. And there were several other similar tunes written for these words about ten years before Dykes' tune - all beginning with these same triad notes! The similarity of all of these tunes may simply mean that each composer independently came to a similar conclusion regarding these Trinitarian words, but their similarity, and when they were written, suggest that Dykes knew at least one of the others, though which one is unknown, as he left no account of his compositional process. Nicaea's author was Reginald Heber (1783-1826), who was Bishop of Calcutta in the early 19th century, and also wrote the hymns Brightest and best, Bread of the world (301), and Hosanna to the living Lord (486, another Dykes/Heber pairing). Today's Offertory Anthem by Heinrich Schütz is from his Becker Psalter of 1628, a collection of psalm paraphrases by his contemporary, Cornelius Becker. In keeping with the flexibility required by the Thirty Years War (1618-1648), Schütz harmonized his original unison tunes and chorales in four parts for the collection, so they could be sung by a choir or by solo voice with continuo (keyboard and a bass instrument) playing the harmony.
